

Director's Name: Christine Hanlon

Board Involvement: Member of Audit Committee

Profile:

For 60 years Christine has been a dedicated Credit Union member and worked for 20 years at the Bergengren Branch, retiring in 2019. For 25 years she served as the Financial Officer for the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre and retired this fall. Over the years Christine has been an active resident of Antigonish, involved with many organizations including, St. James United Church, NS Foster Parents Association, Syrian Antigonish Families Embrace (SAFE) and as an Antigonish Town Planning Committee member. Currently she is a member of the UNIFOR Retired Workers, the Antigonish Rivers Association, volunteering with the Eastern Nova Scotia Exhibition and gives Newcomer Tax Planning Seminars. In her leisure time Christine enjoys windsurfing, angling, kayaking and running after her many grandchildren.